Competition Day Protocols and Guidelines Related to Covid-19:

- Competitors: Monitor your temperature 24 hours prior to competition.
- Hand sanitizer will be available in show office, at awards table and near warm-up arenas.
- Bit Checks/ Equipment Checks: Bit and equipment volunteer will do a visual check of your horse. If a bit is in question, TD will be summoned. Rider / Trainer will measure whips themselves under supervision of bit/ equipment check volunteer. Rider must dismount to remove bonnet from horse. Entries will be checked for correct information and completeness of entry prior to the start of show day to reduce person-to-person contact in show office. Packets of correct entries will be left in the horse's assigned stall. Please text Patti Hildreth (919-210-5899) when you arrive on the show grounds to check-in, or to make an appointment to go to office to complete you entry.

Haul-In Entries 7 incomplete entries - Check in at Show Office, complete entries will be on table outside of show office.

Tests & Ribbons: Pick up at awards table. Please do not crowd, respect social distancing protocols.

Food: There will be concessions on the show grounds. Please do not crowd and respect social distancing protocols.
